

YOUR FAMILY TREE

- I. Choose one relative who is from your grandparents generation. Set up a time to interview them. Take notes of your interview and allow the interviewee to talk as much as they want. Don't keep it too structured but let them tell you their stories.

REQUIREMENT: Project Grade = 100 points

Written Assignment: 2-3 page analysis of either their immigrant experience or their recollection of an earlier ancestor's immigrant experience.

Areas to investigate:

Ask these questions and write down their answers....

Where are they from? When did they come here?

Reasons why they came to the United States.

How did they manage upon first arriving here? Where did they work? Did they go to school?

What was it like to be a teenager?

Where did they first arrive in America?

Did they suffer any discrimination because of their immigrant status? Explain. Please try to provide an anecdotal story here.

In what ways do they think America has changed since the time of their arrival or their Ancestors?

How did their immigrant experience differ from immigrants today?

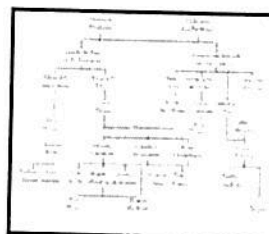

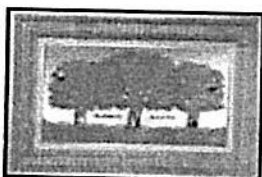

Now give your grandparent a kiss and tell them you love them!!!!
(OR relative)

- II. Create a family tree tracing your family's lineage to your Great Grandparents.

Must include:

- Person's full name (maiden name for women also)
- Date of Birth - Date of Death
- Place of Birth
- Place of Death

Spend time creating something nice your family can be proud of!!!
